DEDICATION.

The members of the Society of Colonial Wars in the State of Missouri, with filial gratitude and loving veneration dedicate this Volume to their PATRIOTIC ANCESTORS.

EXPLANATORY.

The Gentlemen of the Council under whose auspices this register has been prepared, deem it proper to say, that in favoring the introduction of the numerous portraits, which embellish it, they had less in view the personal gratification of our members than a desire to produce a record Volume which will be priceless to those who are to come after us.

It is unlikely that this will ever again be attempted, and the time seems propitious for the plan.

This is the first register in the new century—the period of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition is notable—and we thus emphasize our having reached the one hundred mark in membership.

The Council confidently believes that every member will appreciate the full value of the book, and recognize with gratitude the industry of our Registrar, to whose efforts the chief credit of its issue is due.

BY-LAWS OF THE
MISSOURI SOCIETY.

NAME.

This organization shall be known as the Society of Colonial Wars in the State of Missouri, and is a part of the General Society of Colonial Wars, and its headquarters shall be in the City of St. Louis, Missouri.

OFFICERS.

II.—The officers of the Society, to be elected annually from the members of the Society, shall be a Governor, a Deputy-Governor, a Lieutenant-Governor, a Secretary, a Deputy-Secretary, a Treasurer, a Registrar, a Historian, and a Chaplain. These officers, excepting the Historian, Deputy-Secretary and Chaplain, shall be ex-officio members of the Council; and in addition the Council shall be composed of nine other persons.

FEES AND DUES.

III.—The initiation fee shall be five dollars. The annual dues, payable on or before January 1st of each year, shall be five dollars. The payment at one time of $75 shall constitute life membership, and shall exempt the member so paying from annual dues.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR MEMBERSHIP.

IV.—Any male person above the age of twenty-one years, of good moral character and reputation, shall be eligible to membership in this Society, who is lineally descended in the male or female line, from an ancestor:

(1) Who served as a military or naval officer, or as a soldier, sailor or marine, or as a privateersman under authority of the

Colonies which afterward formed the United States, or in the forces of Great Britain which participated with those of the said Colonies in any wars in which the said Colonies were engaged, or in which they enrolled men, from the settlement of Jamestown, May 13th, 1607, to the battle of Lexington, April 19th, 1775; or

(2) Who held office in any of the Colonies between the dates above mentioned, either as

(a) Director-General, Vice-Director-General or member of the Council or legislative body in the Colony of New Netherlands;

(b) Governor, Lieutenant or Deputy-Governor, Lord Proprietor, member of the King's or Governor's Council or legislative body in the Colonies of New York, New Jersey, Virginia, Pennsylvania and Delaware;

(c) Lord Proprietor, Governor, Deputy-Governor, or member of the Council or of the legislative body in Maryland and the Carolinas;

(d) Governor, Deputy-Governor, Governor's Assistant or Commissioner to the United Colonies of New England, or member of the Council, body of Assistants or legislative body in any of the New England Colonies.

ELECTION OF MEMBERS.

V.—Members shall be elected as follows: A candidate must be proposed by one member of the Society and seconded by another. The candidate, or his proposers, shall send his name and documents or other proof of qualifications to the Secretary, who shall transmit them to the Membership Committee. The Committee shall carefully investigate the same. If the candidate be a resident within the jurisdiction of another State Society, the said Committee shall, through the Secretary, obtain the consent of the Council of such State Society before making favorable report. Upon favorable report by the Committee, the Council of this Society may elect him by ballot.

A candidate receiving two negative votes shall fail of election.

Payment of the initiation fees and dues shall be a prerequisite of membership.

GOVERNOR.

VI.—The Governor, or in his absence the Deputy-Governor or Lieutenant-Governor, or in their absence a chairman pro tem. shall exercise the duties of presiding officer at all meetings of the Society, under the usual rules of parliamentary laws, subject to an appeal to the Society. He shall have power to convene the Council at his discretion or upon the written request of two members of the Council, or upon the like request of five members of the Society.

SECRETARY.

VII.—The Secretary shall conduct the general correspondence of the Society and keep a record thereof. He shall notify all elected candidates of their admission, and perform such other duties as the Society or his office may require. He shall have charge of the seal, by-laws, historical and other documents and records of the Society, other than those required to be deposited with the Registrar, and shall affix the seal to all properly authenticated certificates of membership, and transmit the same to the members to whom they may be issued. He shall notify the Registrar of all admissions to membership. He shall certify all acts of the Society, and when required, authenticate them under seal. He shall have charge of printing and publications issued by the Society. He shall give due notice of the time and place of the holding of all Courts of the Society and of the Council. He shall keep fair and accurate records of all the proceedings and orders of the Society and of the Council, and shall give notice to each officer who may be affected by them of all votes, resolutions and proceedings of the Society or of the Council, and at the General Court, or oftener, shall report the names of those candidates who have been admitted to membership and those whose resignations have been accepted, and of those members who have been expelled. In his absence from any meeting, the Deputy-Secretary shall act, or a Secretary pro tem. may be designated therefor.

TREASURER.

VIII.—The Treasurer shall collect and keep the funds and securities of the Society, and as often as those funds shall amount to Fifty Dollars, they shall be deposited in some bank in the City of St. Louis, which shall be designated by the Council, to the credit of the Society of Colonial Wars, in the State of Missouri, and such funds shall be drawn thence on the checks of the Treasurer for the purpose of the Society only. Out of these funds he shall pay such sums only as may be ordered by the Society or Council, or his office may require. He shall keep a true account of his receipts and payments, and at each annual meeting render the same to the Society. For the faithful performance of his duty, he may be required to give such security as the Society may deem proper.

REGISTRAR.

IX.—The Registrar shall receive from the Society and file all the proofs upon which membership has been granted, with a list of all diplomas countersigned by him, and all documents which the Society may obtain, and he, under the direction of the Council, shall make copies of such papers as the owners may not be willing to leave in the keeping of the Society.

HISTORIAN.

X.—The Historian shall keep a detailed record of all historical and commemoration celebrations of the Society. And he shall edit and prepare for publication such historical addresses, papers and other documents as the Society may see fit to publish. Also a necrological list of each year, and biographies of deceased members.

CHAPLAIN.

XI.—The Chaplain shall be an ordained minister of a Christian Church, and it shall be his duty to officiate when called upon by the proper officers.

THE COUNCIL.

XII.—The Council shall meet as often as required or at the call of the Governor, or at the call of the Secretary, or at the written request of two of its members. Three shall be a quorum for the transaction of business. They shall have control and management of the affairs and funds of the Society. They may accept the resignation of any member of the Society. At the General Court, they shall submit to the Society a report of their proceedings during the past year. The Council shall have the power to drop from the roll the name of any members of the Society who shall be at least two years in arrears, and shall fail on proper notice to pay the same within sixty days, and on being dropped, his membership shall cease; but he may be restored to membership at any time by the Council upon his written application, and the payment of all such arrears from the date when he was dropped to the date of his restoration. The Council may suspend any officer for cause, which must be reported to the Society, and action taken on the same within sixty days.

COMMITTEE ON MEMBERSHIP.

XIII.—The Committee on Membership shall consist of five members. They shall be chosen by ballot at the General Court of the Society, and shall be elected for a period of one year. Three members shall constitute a quorum, and a negative vote of two members shall cause an adverse report to the Council on the candidate's application: A candidate who has been rejected by the Council shall be ineligible for membership for a space of one year from date of rejection, except upon the unanimous vote of the Committee.

The Committee shall have power to make by-laws for its government, not inconsistent with the constitution or by-laws of the Society.

RESIGNATION.

XIV.—No resignation of any member shall become effective unless consented to by the Council.

DISQUALIFICATION.

XV.—No person who may be enrolled as a member of this Society shall be permitted to continue in membership when his proofs of descent or eligibility shall be found to be defective. The Council, after thirty days' notice to such person to substantiate his claim, and upon his failure satisfactorily so to do, may require the Secretary to erase his name from the membership list. The said person shall have a right to appeal to the Society at its next Court or at the General Court. If the said appeal be sustained by a two-thirds vote of the members present at such Court, the said person's name shall be restored to said membership list.

EXPULSION OR SUSPENSION.

XVI.—Any member for cause or conduct detrimental or antagonistic to the interest or purposes of the Society, or for just cause, may be suspended or expelled from the Society; but no member shall be expelled or suspended unless written charges be presented against such member to the Council. The Council shall give reasonable notice of such charges and afford such member reasonable opportunity to be heard and refute the same. The Council, after hearing such charges, may recommend to the Society the expulsion or suspension of such member, and if the recommendation of the Council be adopted by a majority vote of the members of the Society present at such Court, he shall be so expelled or suspended, and the insignia of said member shall thereupon be returned to the Treasurer of the Society, and his rights therein shall be extinguished or suspended. The Treasurer shall refund to the said member the amount paid for the said insignia.

Special Courts may be called by the Governor at such times as in his opinion the interests of the Society may demand, and must be called by the Secretary on the written request of three members. All notices of meetings shall be sent out at least six days before the date of the meeting.

SERVICE OF NOTICE.

XVII.—It shall be the duty of every member to inform the Secretary of any change in his place of residence and of his post-office address.

CERTIFICATE OF MEMBERSHIP.

XVIII.—Members may receive a certificate of membership, which shall be signed by the Governor, Secretary and Registrar.

ALTERATION OR AMENDMENT.

XIX.—No alteration or amendment of the by-laws shall be made unless notice shall have been duly given in writing, signed by the member proposing the same, at a Court of the Society.

The Secretary shall send a printed copy of the proposed amendment to the members of the Society, and state the Court at which the same will be voted upon. No amendment or alteration shall be made unless adopted by a two-thirds vote of the members present at the Court voting upon the same.

ANNIVERSARY.

The Society will meet annually in General Court and will hold a banquet on October 10th. This date is selected because it commemorates two most important events in Colonial History.

First—The occupation of Fort Chartres by English troops, October 10th, 1765. By the Treaty of Paris, concluded February 10th, 1763, was settled for all time the question which had been in doubt for a century—whether French or English civilization and rule should shape the destinies of this continent. By this treaty Canada and that portion of Louisiana between the Alleghenies and the Mississippi were ceded by the French and came into possession of Great Britain. Capt. Thomas Stirling, with a company of the 42d Highlanders, came down the Ohio in boats from Fort Pitt (now Pittsburg), arriving early in October, 1765. On the tenth day of that month he relieved the French commander of Fort Chartres, St. Ange, who for some months had been under orders to give up the fort whenever a force of British came to relieve him. These were the first English troops who ever set foot in the Illinois country. Fort Chartres, built by the French in 1720, was in its time the strongest fortress in America. Its ruins are on the left bank of the Mississippi River, in Randolph County, Ill., fifty miles south of St. Louis and sixteen miles northwest of Kaskaskia.

Second—On October 10th, 1774, occurred the Battle of Point Pleasant, at the junction of the Kanawha with the Ohio River. This was a most important battle, and the complete victory over the Indians under Cornstalk put an end to their assaults upon our frontiers.

Both these events were important Colonial footsteps in the direction of the West, and hence it seems most appropriate that this day should be selected as the anniversary of the first Society formed west of the Alleghenies.

INSTRUCTIONS TO APPLICANTS AND MEMBERS.

Family tradition will not be accepted by the Society for proof of ancestor's service.

No original or supplemental application will be accepted by the Society that is not complete in the following particulars:

1. Containing a reference for each act of service of ancestor.
2. No cyclopaedias or genealogical works to be accepted as authority for service of ancestor, but reference required to documentary records of the various Colonies, published Archives, histories of established reputation, and recognized works of local historical accuracy.
3. Proceedings of Congress as well as the proceedings of the Conventions, Assemblies and Councils of the various Colonies.
4. The pagination of references in all cases to be required and verified.
5. Reference to original documents to be supported by such documents, together with two type-written copies thereof, the original to be returned to the applicant after verification of copies in the office of Registrar.
6. All applications must be endorsed by two members of the Society.

The State Society publishes a Register, containing the name and ancestor's service of the members of the Missouri Society, and publishes, free of charge, all supplemental applications. One copy of this book is furnished every member free. Extra copies can be had for $1.75 each.

The rosette to be worn in the upper button-hole of left lapel of the coat may be had of the Treasurer, Henry P. Wyman, 103 Chamber of Commerce, St. Louis, at a cost of 25 cents.

The insignia, in gold, costing $22, or in silver gilt at $12, may be ordered through the Secretary. It is optional with members whether they purchase the rosette or insignia.

The General Society issues a Diploma Certificate of Membership, engrossed on heavy parchment, with the signatures of the officers of the General Society and State Society attached. This Diploma is a fine work of art. It is optional with members whether they purchase the same. If desired, it must be ordered through the Registrar of the State Society, and costs $7.75 framed, and express charges to be added from New York to destination.

SUPPLEMENTAL APPLICATIONS.

When descent can be shown from more than one ancestor as described, supplemental applications may be filed—one for each additional line of descent.

FEEES.

The membership fee is $5, and the annual dues $5, which sums must accompany the application.

The General Society also requires a fee of fifty cents for filing every supplemental application, which sum must accompany the same.

Blank applications and any information concerning the Society can be had by addressing the Secretary.

In Memoriam.

William King Duckworth.

BORN NOVEMBER 17, 1874.DIED JUNE 5, 1900.

William King Duckworth was a native of Cincinnati, Ohio, where he was born November 17, 1874. His parents were George King Duckworth and Lucy Bishop. His early career was spent in Cincinnati until in 1892 he entered the Sheffield Scientific School of Yale College, from which he was graduated in 1895.

After the death of his father he, with his mother, moved to St. Joseph, Missouri.

Mrs. Duckworth's home in St. Joseph was noted for the intelligent people brought together by her charming hospitality, and her grace and culture made her home the rendezvous for those who enjoyed her keen intellect. It was a sudden shock to her friends when she passed away, on the day she had intended to leave St. Joseph for an extended trip abroad, with her son and a party of friends. And the suddenness of her death was such a shock that her son was unable to withstand an attack of typhoid fever, and he followed his mother in a few weeks.

Will Duckworth, as he was familiarly called, was possessed of such manly traits of character as to endear him to all of his friends. He was particularly interested in the patriotic-hereditary Societies, and notwithstanding his youth, represented the Missouri Society Sons of the Revolution as a delegate to the Congress of the General Society, held at Denver in 1899, and his membership in the Society of Colonial Wars in the State of Missouri was much valued by him.

The sympathy of the Society goes out to his surviving sister, in the loss of this brother, who had so much to live for.

WILLIAM KING DUCKWORTH.

ROBERT ELISHA CARR.

Robert Elisha Carr.

BORN AUGUST 9, 1827.DIED SEPTEMBER 8, 1900.

Robert Elisha Carr was born at "Locust Grove," near Lexington, in Fayette County, Kentucky, August 9th, 1827. He came to St. Louis in 1847, and became interested in mercantile affairs, was for many years President of the Exchange Bank, became interested in the Kansas Pacific Railway Co. and in 1871 was its President; was also President of the Denver Pacific Railway Co., a director in the St. Louis, Kansas City & Northern Railway Co., President of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas Railway Co., President of the Mercantile Library Association, and interested as a director in many other corporations.

He took great pleasure and pride in developing young men coming under his observation while connected with so many corporations, and followed the future of "my boys," as he called them, with never-ending interest. In 1878 he retired from active business and spent the remainder of his days in a quiet life on his farm near the city, amongst his books, and the many animals for which he had a fondness. He died September 8th, 1900, leaving a widow, children and grandchildren.

Mr. Carr's membership in the Society of Colonial Wars was derived through the service of Walter Chiles, from whom he was sixth in descent. Member of the Virginia House of Burgesses. Speaker. Member of the Council, 1652.

Also fifth in descent from Walter Chiles. Member of the Virginia House of Burgesses for James City County.

Right Rev. Charles Reuben Hale, D. D., LL. D.

BORN MARCH 14, 1837.

DIED DECEMBER 25, 1900.

Bishop Hale was born in Lewistown, Pennsylvania, March 14, 1837; he was graduated from the University of Pennsylvania and was ordained to the Priesthood in 1861. The next year he was appointed Chaplain in the Navy. After the Civil War he became Professor of Mathematics in the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, but resigned after a short time to take charge of an Eastern church. He was Rector of St. John's Church, Auburn, N. Y., 1871-3; Rector of St. Mary the Virgin, Baltimore, Md., 1875-6; Assistant of St. Paul's, Baltimore, Md., 1877-85.

In 1886 he came west to Iowa and became Dean of the Cathedral in Davenport. In 1892 he was elected Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Springfield, and took up his residence at Cairo, Illinois, where he died December 25, 1900. The interment was in Philadelphia in the Cemetery near St. James the Less, where the remains of his beloved wife are buried. Bishop Hale's right to membership in the Society of Colonial Wars was through the service of Gov. William Pynchon, of Massachusetts, and Governors Thomas Wells and John Webster, of Connecticut, and forty-four other ancestors in Colonial service. He had the distinction of having proven up the service of more ancestors in Colonial service than any other member of the Missouri Society.

Colonel George Eliot Leighton.

BORN MARCH 7, 1835.DIED JULY 4, 1901.

Colonel George Eliot Leighton was born March 7th, 1835, in Cambridge, Massachusetts. The family removed in 1845 to Cincinnati, Ohio, and here he was graduated from Woodward College, and in 1856 was a practicing lawyer. He came to St. Louis in 1858, and during the Civil War he espoused the Union cause and enlisted as a Lieutenant in the 3rd Missouri Infantry, R. C. Later, was Major of the 5th Missouri S. M. Cavalry; was Provost Marshal of St. Louis, 1861-2. After the war he became prominent in commercial and railroad affairs. He was deeply interested in Washington University and contributed largely to its support.

For ten years he was President of the Missouri Historical Society. He had also been President of the New England Society and the Commercial Club. Was a member of the St. Louis Club, University Club, and of the Union and Union League Clubs of New York City. Was a member of the Missouri Commandery of the Loyal Legion, and of the Missouri Society Sons of the American Revolution.

Colonel Leighton was a man of exceedingly refined tastes and filled his home with the best of books and finest of paintings.

In 1862 Colonel Leighton married Miss Isabella, daughter of Hudson E. Bridge, a prominent citizen of St. Louis; she died in 1888. They had but one child, George Bridge Leighton, who is now a prominent citizen of St. Louis.

Colonel Leighton was a member of the Society of Colonial Wars in right of the service of his ancestors, Captain John Leighton, Deputy Governor Ambrose Gibbons, Lieutenant-Colonel William Pepperrell, Major Charles Frost.

Colonel Leighton passed to the beyond July 4, 1901.

Colonel Orestes Augustus Crandall.

BORN FEBRUARY 25, 1833.DIED JULY 6, 1901.

Colonel Orestes A. Crandall was born February 25th, 1833, at Cicero, near Syracuse, New York. His parents were natives of Connecticut. In 1835 the family removed to Crystal Lake, McHenry County, Illinois, where young Crandall grew to manhood. In 1853 he went to California and for eight years engaged in mining, returning in 1861 to Saline County, Missouri. He aided the Union cause during the war and assisted in raising two regiments. Was in the battle at Marshall in 1863, and taken prisoner by the Confederates in the engagement at Sedalia 1864.

Colonel Crandall became a lawyer and served as Democratic State Senator from the Counties of Pettis and Saline in 1868. In 1875 he organized the Pettis County Bank and was its President for five years. He then organized the Missouri Trust Company, then the Sedalia Trust Company.

Colonel Crandall was deeply interested in literary matters and was a contributor to the leading scientific magazines of England and America. He was Vice-President of the State Board of Geology and Mines for four years.

Mr. Crandall's right to membership in this Society was through the service of his ancestor, John Crandall, of Newport and Westerly, Rhode Island, who was a Freeman 1655, Commissioner 1658-63, Deputy 1667-71. He was also seventh in descent from Robert Lockwood, Sergeant of Colonial forces of Connecticut 1657.

ORESTES AUGUSTUS CRANDALL.

HENRY LITTLETON EDMUNDS.

Hon. Henry Littleton Edmunds.

BORN APRIL 2, 1853.DIED JANUARY 25, 1902.

Judge Henry Littleton Edmunds, of St. Louis, Missouri, son of Sterling Edwin Edmunds and Mary Jane Claiborn his wife, was born April 2nd, 1853, at the ancestral home "Birchland," Halifax County, Virginia. He was ninth in descent from John West, Governor of Virginia 1635-37, a younger brother of Thomas West, third Lord De La Warr.

He was eighth in descent from Col. William Claiborne, Secretary of the Commonwealth of Virginia, and Treasurer for life.

He was also seventh in descent from Col. William Browne.

Judge Edmunds graduated in 1873 from the law department of the University of Virginia, and in the same year was admitted to the bar at Halifax Court House, Virginia. The following year he came to St. Louis, Missouri, where he practiced law until November, 1892, when he was elected Judge of the St. Louis Criminal Court, where for four years he was a cheerful, able and painstaking judge, earning the hearty approval of his fellow-citizens of all parties. Upon retiring from the bench he again resumed the practice of his profession.

Judge Edmund's charming personality made him an ever welcome companion and associate, and he became a member of numerous societies, clubs, and orders. He was a 33rd Degree Mason and belonged to Ascalon Commandery Knights Templars. He was also a member of the Knights of Pythias, Virginia Historical Society, Sons of the Revolution in the State of Missouri, Society of Colonial Wars in the State of Missouri, St. Louis Club, Country Club, and the Jefferson Club.

June 10th, 1895, Judge Edmunds was married to Miss Almy Breckinridge, daughter of Judge Samuel M. Breckinridge, of St. Louis, Mo.

Judge Edmunds died January 25th, 1902, leaving no children.

Major Charles Edward Pearce.

BORN MAY 29, 1842.
DIED JANUARY 30, 1902.

Maj. Charles Edward Pearce was born at Whitestown, Oneida County, New York, May 29th, 1842. He became a resident of Auburn, N. Y., and was educated at Fairfield Seminary and Union College. In 1863 he entered the Volunteer service for the preservation of the Union as Captain of "D" Battery, 16th New York Heavy Artillery, and six months later was promoted to Major of that regiment, which was armed and did service as an infantry regiment. He was in many battles and engagements, amongst which were Petersburg, Dutch-Gap, Drury's Bluff, New Market Heights, Dustytown Roads, Fort Fisher and Wilmington; was with the Army of the James, of the Potomac and the North Carolina Expeditionary Force, Provost-Marshal General Eastern District, North Carolina, and Military Superintendent Freedman's Bureau for the 8th District, and served as Judge-Advocate from October, 1864, to June, 1865, and was mustered out of the service August 21, 1865. The following year he came to St. Louis, Mo., where he followed the profession of law. In 1875 he was Commander of the St. Louis National Guard. He was a delegate to the Republican National Convention of 1888. In 1891 he was appointed Chairman of the Sioux Indian Commission; was member of Congress for the 12th District of Missouri in the 55th Congress; re-elected in 1898 to the 56th Congress from that District, and declined a re-nomination in 1890. While in Congress, he was a valuable member of the Naval Committee, and an ever-faithful worker for a new and enlarged navy, in which interest he made a trip around the world.

Maj. Pearce was seventh in descent from Lieutenant Nicholas Stillwell, prominent in early Colonial Indian wars on Staten Island, Manhattan Island and Virginia. Through the Stillwell family he was related to the beautiful and unfortunate Theodosia, only daughter of Aaron Burr, Lady Affleck, Lady Barrington, and the celebrated Lady Holland of Holland House.

Maj. Pearce never married. He died in St. Louis January 30th, 1902.

GEORGE ARNOLD BAKER.

George Arnold Baker.

BORN APRIL 10, 1832.DIED FEBRUARY 3, 1902.

George Arnold Baker was born in New Haven, Connecticut, and became eligible to membership in this Society through the service of his ancestor, Lieutenant John Baker, of Woodbury, Connecticut, Ensign of Colonial forces of Connecticut, 1741, Lieutenant of the Train Band 1743.

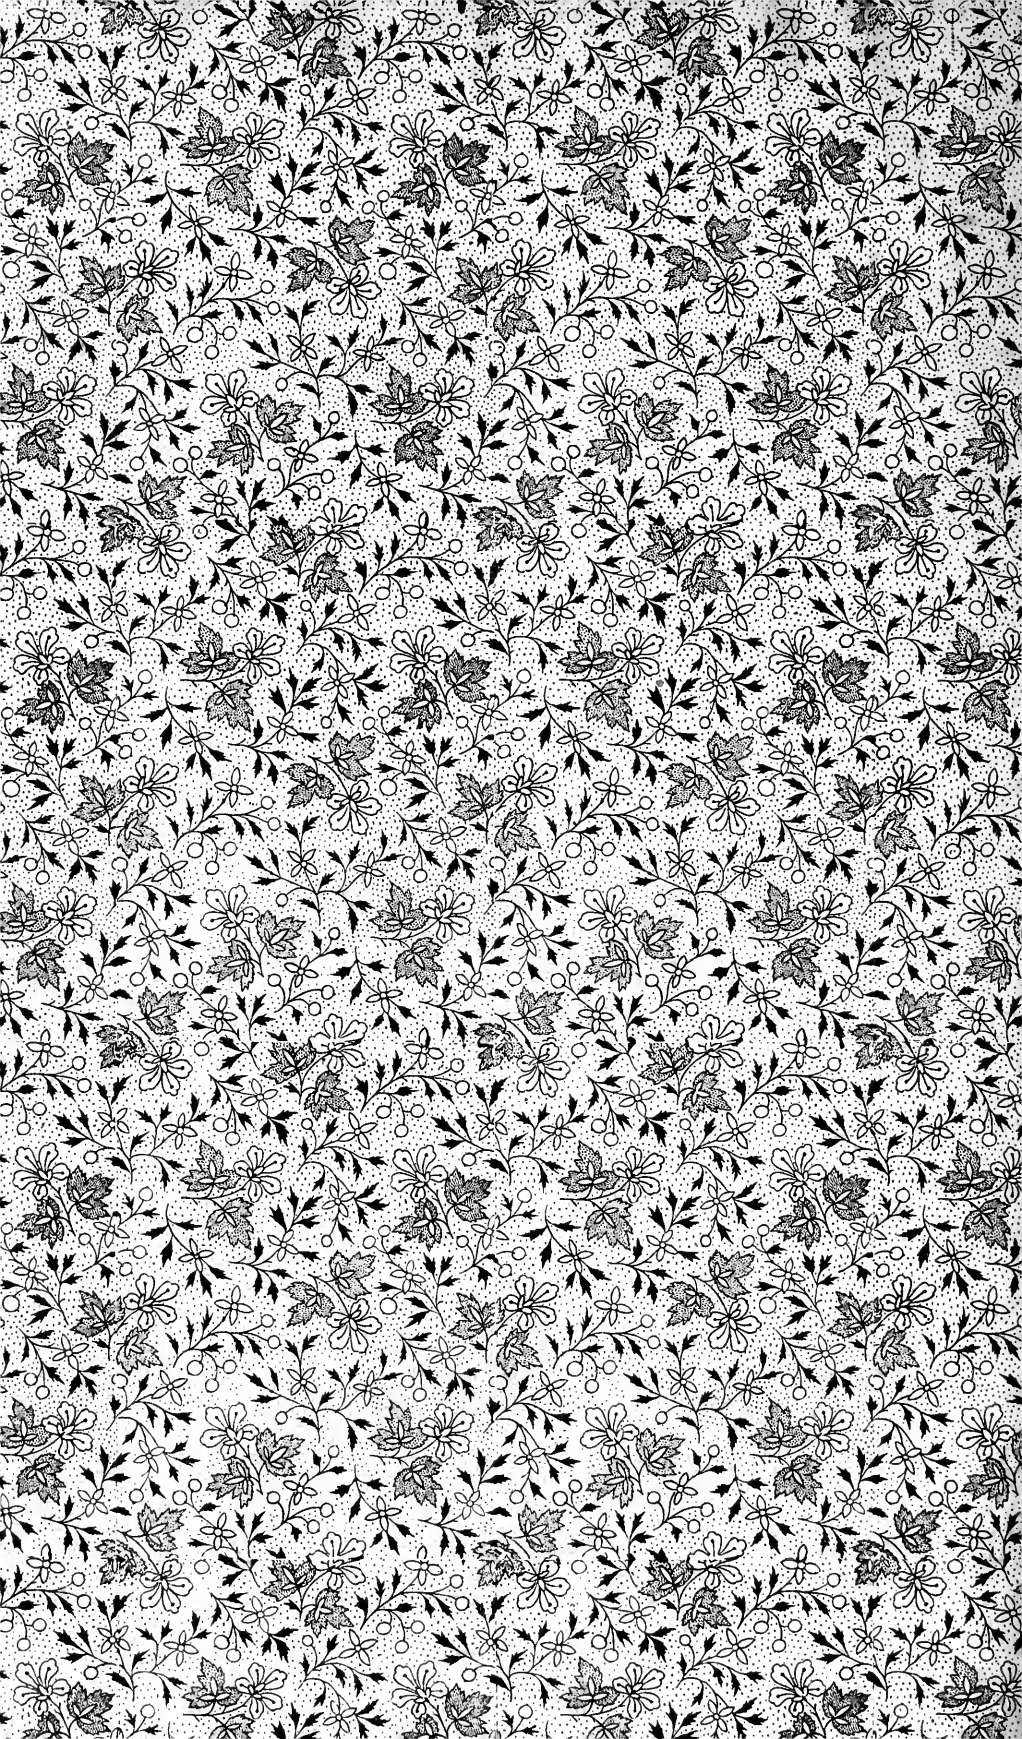

Soon after reaching his majority in the year 1854, he accepted a position in the mercantile house of his brother, in which he afterwards became a partner at Westport, Missouri, remaining there until 1863, when he engaged in an overland expedition taking a stock of merchandise to Salt Lake City. In 1865 he again made the trip across the plains, extending it to Helena, Montana. In 1866 he arrived at Fort Benton, and, in connection with his brother, embarked in a general frontier business.

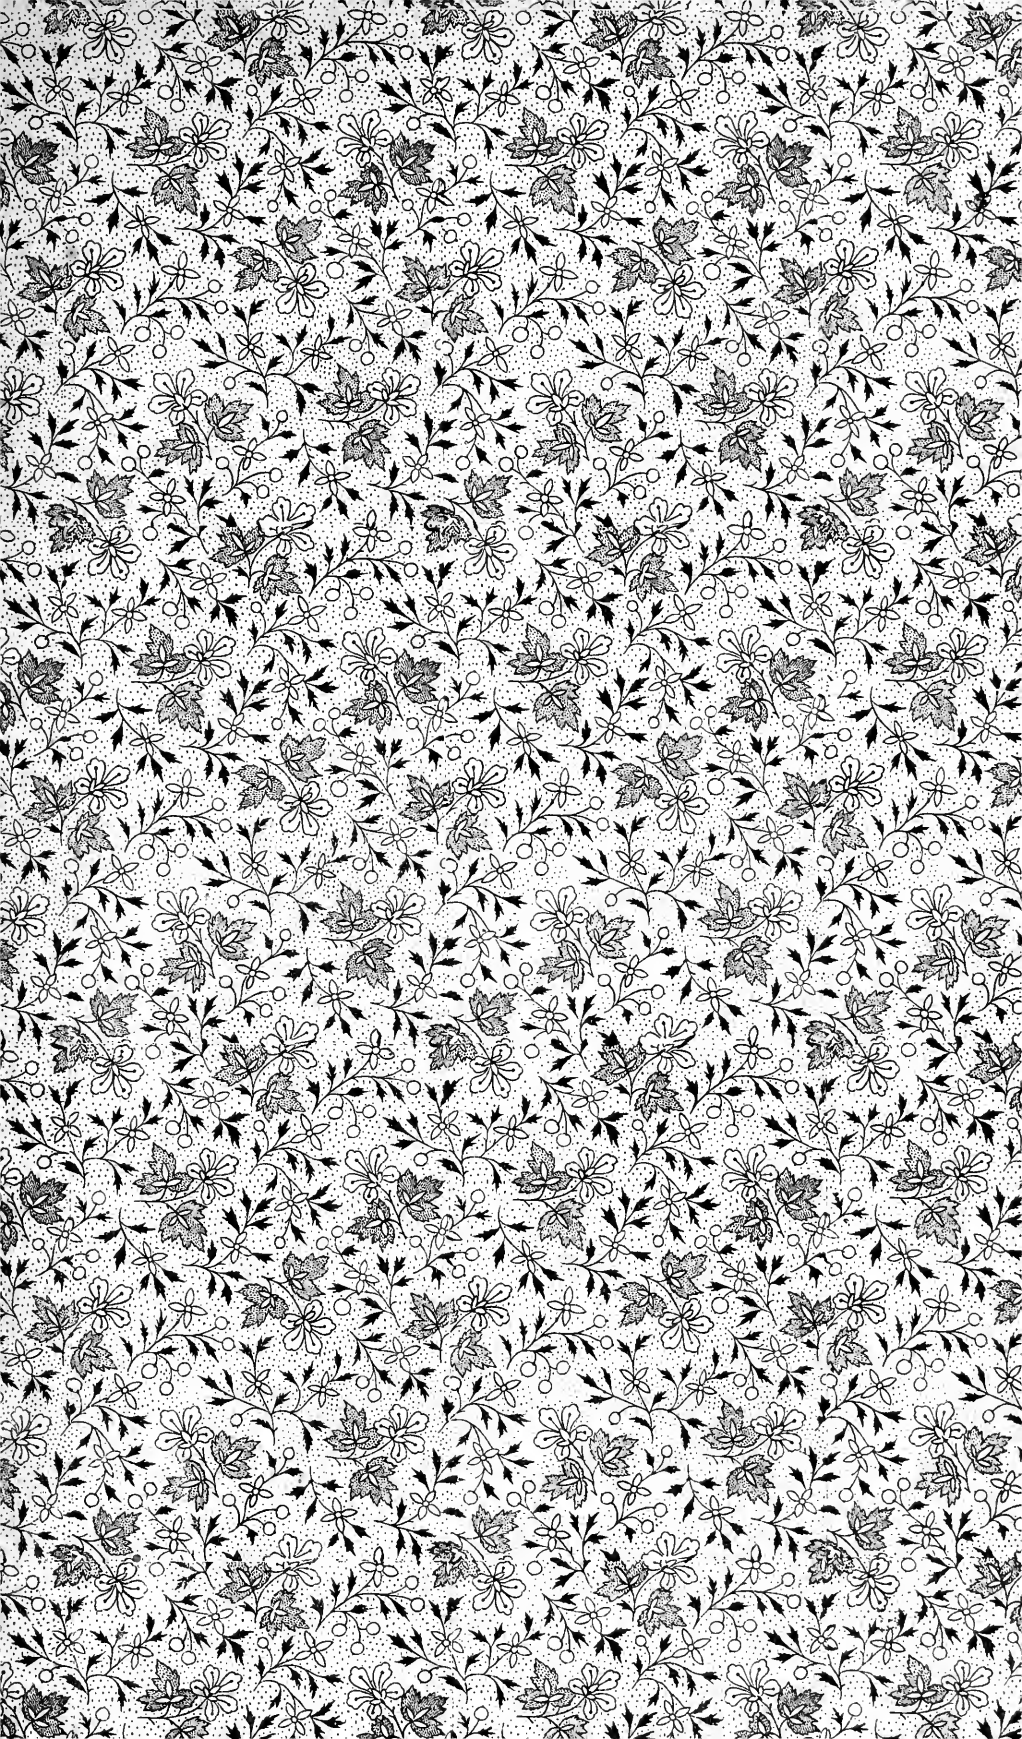

Feeling the need of educational facilities for his family of children, he left Fort Benton and came to St. Louis, and after a short experience in the brokerage business, he was solicited to accept the Presidency of the then Continental Bank, which afterwards became the Continental National Bank. He was also a director in the Colonial Trust Company, a member of the Finance Committee of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, and was holding office on Educational and Church Boards, which all have paid kind tributes in unstinted words to his worth by passing memorials to be recorded on the minutes of their several Boards.
